YEAR 11 AND 12 STUDY PATHWAYS

In Year 11 and 12, we work with students to create a customised study plan based on their goals, strengths and learning styles. The study plan can incorporate TAFE Courses, Online and/or offsite certificates II, III and IV courses. WACE courses offered by the School of Isolated and Distance Education (SIDE), Worklink Workplace learning, and Endorsed programs approved by the School Curriculum and Standards Authority.

Courses, especially those outside of those offered by TAFE, generally incur additional fees and will require a meeting with the Director of Studies. If students custom study plan does not require Carmel provided courses on Thursday and/or Friday, then a tuition discount may apply. Additional information regarding discounts is available from and approved by the Director of Studies.

BURSARY ASSISTANCE

Carmel Adventist College offers financial support to parents who are low-income earners or experiencing financial hardship. Bursaries are available to families who have been enrolled for more than 12 months and meet the eligibility criteria. Parents wishing to apply for a bursary are invited to complete a confidential application form and submit it to the Principal. Please note that bursary assistance must be applied for each year and is awarded on an annual basis.

WITHDRAWAL OF A STUDENT

A terms notice in writing is to be sent to the Principal, prior to withdrawal of a student. In default of such written notice, a full terms tuition fee may be charged in lieu of notice.

OTHER INFORMATION

The College reserves the right to de-register any student when payments, or satisfactory arrangements for such, have not been made by the due dates shown on the fee payment commitment form.

If fees are not up to date, your child may be ineligible to attend camps or excursions.

Should the College require the services of a debt collector, you, as the person financially responsible, will be liable for all costs associated with the debt collection process. The College is not responsible for these costs.
